MLA (8th Edition, 2016) Style Citations

In the text of your paper you acknowledge the sources you used with a brief parenthetical citation that refers to an alphabetical Works Cited list at the end of the paper. The brief citation should include just enough information for a reader to find the full citation in the list as well as a page number, if appropriate. For example, if you are citing a fact found on page 359 of Up from History by Robert J. Norrell, the brief citation might be (Norrell 359); it might be (Norrell Up 359) if your list contains two books by Norrell. If you mention the author by name, you may need just need the page number (359).

Formatting the Works Cited list (pp. 20-53 of MLA Handbook, 8th edition)

- Start the list on a new page with the page number in the upper right-hand corner, .5" from the top, flush with the right margin.
- Center the title (Works Cited) 1" from the top of the page.
- Double-space the entire list, including between the title and first entry.
- Start the first line of each entry flush with the left margin, and indent subsequent lines of the entry .5" from the left margin.
- Use the abbreviations listed in section 1.6 of the handbook where appropriate.
- Sort the entries in alphabetical order (see section 2.7 for details).

Changes from the 7th edition:

- Include "vol.", "no.", and "p."/"pp." when you include the volume, number, and page numbers.
- Do not include the place of publication.
- Do not include a medium of publication (Print, Web, Film, DVD, etc.).
- Date of access for online sources is optional but can be important for pages likely to change.
- Include the URL of online publications, but omit http://; use a permalink or DOI, if available.
- Do not use abbreviations for missing information such as date and page numbers.
